Sir,

In submitting herewith for favor of Government sanction and return a bill for Rs 1366-9-10 being the establishment charges due to the servants of the Sri Kashi Singeswara-Swami temple at Kigga in the Koppa Taluk from 1st March 1901 to 30th June 1902, I have the honor to state that the payment had to be withheld since March 1901 for want of funds at the savings of the temple

The accompanying certificate obtained from the officer in charge of the Kadur District Treasury will show that a sum of Rs 2890-10-7 is now available at the credit of the Institution under the head "Management"

The charges now claimed have been checked and verified with the scale fixed in the Jandick Patti received with the Mensrai Secretary's docket No 86 dated 15-7-1897.
